COLONIAL THEATRE.

Two Women," Three Reel Vitagraph Broadway Star Feature, Today at the Colonial theatre, the feature picture will be Two Women. a mammoth three reel Vitagraph fea-ture, presenting Earl Williams, Anita Stewart. Julia Swayne Gordon, and Harry Northrup, at their best. The plot is a very interesting on, and has to do with two women who cross a fascinating man's path. To accept one of the women leads to happiness and all that is good, while to accept the other, leads to destruction. The choice is not apparent at once, and not until a series of trials present the worthy woman in her true light does the man woman in her true light does the man succeed in making the choice. The Way of the Women, is a big Essanay feature, presenting Miss Irene Hough, voted the most beautiful telephone operator in America. The bill is completed by Two Pop-up- Fables by George Ade, which are sure to be delightful mirth-provokers. For tomorrow, the immersa five real feature.

ANACONDA COPPER CO. GIVES NOTES FOR $16,000,000 Is to Spend Five or Six Millions on Improvements This Year.

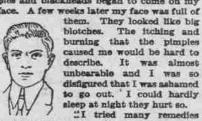

New York, Feb. 24.- The Anaconda Copper Mining company has negotiated the sale to the National City bank of $16,000,000 of 5 per cent, two-year notes, it was announced here today. With the proceeds Anaconda will purchase from the Amaigamated Copper company the United Metals Selling company and the notes of the Amal gamated company, amounting to $12,-500,000, which mature March 15 next. The Anaconda company will also spend $5,000,000 or $6,000,000 in improvements this year, which explains the increase in the amount of notes sold over the outstanding issue of the Amalgamated
